A PROGRAM OF SIU CARBONDALE SUMMER 2012

fun friends ARCHITECTURE

Build friendships and LEARN ABOUT BUILDINGS AND DESIGN

Explore, design, & construct architecture from native American teepees to the Sears Tower

*Learn about skyscrapers, green architecture,
& Bucky Fuller (who taught at SIU Carbondale!)*

*Actually build in wood and concrete!
You could become the next
Frank Lloyd Wright or Julia Morgan*

ARCHITECTURE
CAMP
A PROGRAM OF SIU CARBONDALE SUMMER 2012

Kids Architecture Day Camp
for Grades 4–6 June 4–8, 2012

SIU Southern Illinois University
CARBONDALE

Our award-winning architecture camps introduce young people to the design of the built environment.

LEARN:

Why do buildings stand up?
Why do buildings look the way they do?
How is a building designed, built, and reused?
What do architects and interior designers do?
How and why do people define space?

UNDERSTAND:

Construction materials
Computers in design
The design process
The importance of the built environment
Design drawing as a problem-solving tool

These topics, tailored to the age and experience of each participant, are the core of all SIU Architecture Camps.
